

Association
Mondiale de la
Gastronomie

Bailliage de Grande Bretagne
64th Grand Chapitre 2024
Glasgow

10-14 July 2024

Our base for the Event is the Glasgow Hilton Hotel
All transport will depart from this venue

Wednesday 10 July

Casual dinner at the Dakota Hotel

Thursday 11 July

Trip to Dumfries House

Fabulous house previously owned by the Marquesses of Bute, designed by Robert Adam, rescued and restored under the patronage of HM The King. It houses the world's largest collection of Chippendale furniture.

The guided tour will be followed by lunch at the Laird's Table in the grounds of the nearby Craufurdland Castle

Diner Amical in the Kelvin Suite at the Glasgow Golf Club. The 9th oldest golf club in the world and set in beautiful grounds in the northern suburbs of the city.

Friday 12 July

Clyde estuary trip on the World's last seagoing paddle steamer 'Waverley' Down the River Clyde past Dumbarton, Dunoon and on to Rothesay on the Isle of Bute. With a gin tasting and lunch at Bute Yard in Rothesay before returning to Glasgow (all day).

City Centre walking tour to see the nineteenth century splendours of the city straight from the hotel front door (am)

Welcome Dinner in the Grand Hall of Trades Hall a superb building dating from 1605 and housing the 14 Trades (Guilds) of the city.

Saturday 13 July

Induction Ceremony (am)

This will be held in the first public building designed by the world famous designer and architect Charles Rennie Mackintosh. Architect of the Glasgow School of Art and founder of the British Art Nouveau style.

MACKINTOSH QUEEN'S CROSS

Charles Rennie Mackintosh walking tour covering the key buildings and influence of Glasgow's world famous designer and architect (am)

Clydeside Whisky Distillery tour including a tasting of single malts (pm)

Gala Dinner will be held in the Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel and prepared by Maitre Rotisseur Stuart Brough.

Sunday 14 July

Northern Belle Pullman luxury train trip along the world famous 'West Highland Line'

The train is journeying to Glasgow especially for this trip courtesy of the Company Directors.

The journey is widely regarded as the most picturesque railway line in Britain. Passengers see lochs, including Loch Lomond, glens, waterfalls and more in Pullman comfort whilst enjoying a mid-morning coffee as we head west. Later towards Ben Nevis a superb 7 course lunch then towards the return to Glasgow a delightful afternoon tea.

When you are not admiring the scenery, the on-board entertainers and musicians will add to the journey's interest.

The Grand Chapitre closes when we return to Glasgow on Sunday evening.

If you wish to extend your stay the Chaine room rates at the Hilton will apply to contiguous stays up to three days before or after the Grand Chapitre

Red Hot Chilli Peppers and the Royal Scots Dragoon Guards Pipes and Drums

To register your interest and apply for a brochure when it is published please drop a note to glasgow@chaine.co.uk